

Capitol Conference Registration Now Open

Registration and the hotel room block are now open for NAHU's 2010 Capitol Conference to be held March 8-10 at the JW Marriott Hotel in Washington.

The 111th Congress has spent much of this year actively working on comprehensive health care reform and will continue its efforts into 2010. It is vital that NAHU members visit with our lawmakers and present ideas that work, especially this year.

Capitol Conference is a unique chance for us to sit down and share our knowledge with the people who make the laws that affect our profession and clients. It is also a great opportunity to connect with your fellow members about health care reform ideas and hear exciting speakers address the current state of our delivery system.

The schedule this year will feature a full day of training and information sharing on Monday, March 8, and speakers and Capitol Hill visits on Tuesday, March 9 and Wednesday, March 10. Planned speakers and sessions include:

- Health Reform and the 2010 Election Cycle with Stuart Rothenberg
- The Economic Impact of Health Reform, a discussion with Douglas Holtz-Eakin, president of DHE Consulting, LLC and former director, Congressional Budget Office and Len Nichols, director of the Health Policy Program at the New America Foundation
- How Health Reform Could Impact The States-Views of a Governor, Legislators and State Insurance Commissioners
- Public Opinion and Health Reform: A Media Perspective
- 2010 Health Policy Priorities in the House and Senate Presented by Key Members of Congress
- The Obama Administration's Expectations Going Forward
- How Health Reform Could Change the Self-Funded Marketplace
- Exchanges and the Role of the Agent/Broker/Consultant
- The New Role of Employers: Compliance in a Reformed Health Care Delivery System
- Enhanced Subsidies and an Individual Mandate: How Would They Work In the Private Market?
- The CLASS ACT: A New National Long-Term Care Program's Potential Impact on The Private Marketplace

We need as many NAHU members in Washington as possible this year to make our voices heard. We look forward to seeing you at Capitol Conference 2010 this spring!
